Wreck Diving Alert!!!

Dive the Graveyard of the Atlantic and experience some of the best wrecks in the world just off North Carolina. Some of the wrecks that may be visited include: The U-352 WWII German Sub, The Papoose, and USCG Cutter Spar. Too many others to list. A must for lovers of wreck diving and history.

When: August 2nd, 3rd and 4th (arrive on the 1st).

Where: Beaufort/Morehead City, North Carolina (approx. 531 miles – 8-hour drive)

Full Day of diving: 3 tank dives @ $155.00 (two deep dives and one shallow) - $465.00 for all three days. There are other options for 2 tank dives excursions - two deep or one deep and one shallow.

Lodging options available on your own from basic on-site bunk house at $15 per night (minimum 8) or hotel/suite w/ one queen bed and a pull out for $130 per night (sleeps 4). Let John know if you're interested in the bunk house option and we'll see if we have enough people.

Opportunity for PADI Deep Diver or Wreck Diver Specialty certification (cost of course and instructor fee not included).

Due to depth and location, all divers must be Advanced Open Water Certified and MUST dive with a computer.

Contact John Vasile for more information: 904-521-3527 (e-mail: jvasile@gmail.com).

Please RSVP to John by Friday, 12 March.

25% Deposit $155. Required by 26 March and payment in full by 18 June.
